Mary Hulme was also born in Sandbach, Cheshire and was christened in the Sandbach Parish on 22 August 1762. Her father was John Hulme. She died on 27 November, 1834 at age 71 and is buried beside her husband, John Johnson, in Great Budworth, Cheshire, England.

Thomas Johnson was born in Northwich, Cheshire and was christened in the Great Budworth Parish on 12 February 1792. He was a farmer like his father. When 30 years old he married Ann Wakefield Shingler, age 22, in Great Budworth. They had nine children. Thomas died 27 May 1865 at age 73. Ann died twenty-two years later at Daresbury, Cheshire.

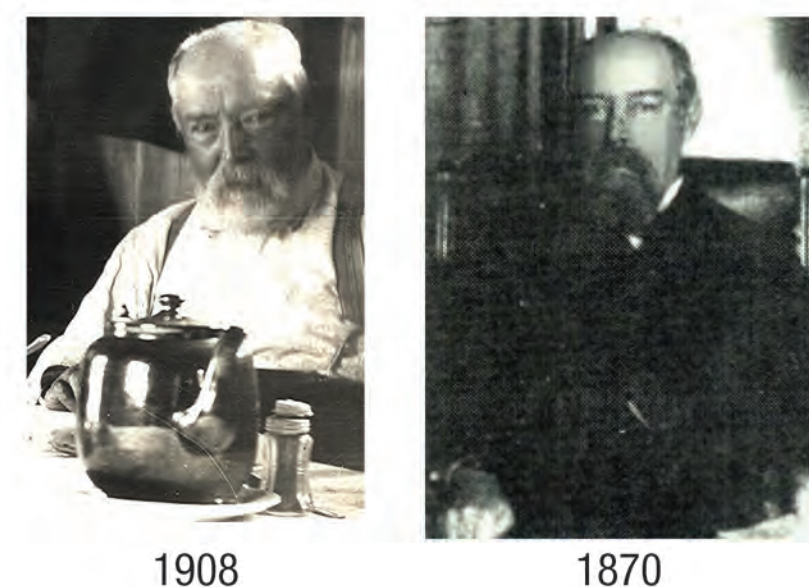

Matthew Johnson was also born in Northwich in February 1797 but moved back to Sandbach where his father was born. There he married Mary Ann Shaw on 10 August 1819 when he was 22 and she was 18. He earned his living selling ironware (pots, pans and utensils) made at the nearby foundry in Wheelock. They had thirteen children, most of whom were born in Wheelock, and twenty-three grandchildren. Matthew died in 1857 at age 60, but Mary Ann lived until 1881 when she died in Staffordshire, England, age 80.

Matthew Johnson (Jr.), born 29 September 1830 in Wheelock, Cheshire, England, moved south to Stratford, Essex, England where he worked as a commercial clerk. He married Jane Elizabeth Townsend on 4 October 1869 when he was 39 and she was much younger. They emigrated to America where their only son, Percy, was born in Michigan on 19 October 1870. Jane died shortly after childbirth so Percy was raised by his married uncle, Benjamin Johnson. Matthew died 3 May 1911 in Oakland, California.

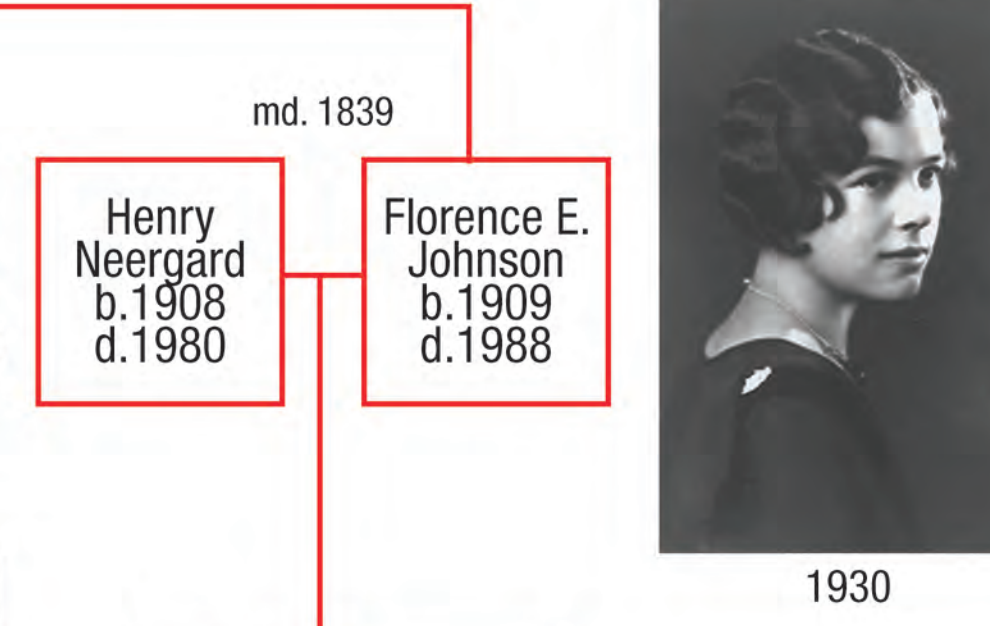

Benjamin Johnson was born 1 May 1834 in Wheelock and lived there until his father died in 1857. He then moved to Sandbach with his widowed mother and younger sister and was living there in 1861 at age 26. He then emigrated to America. He married Amelia Elizabeth Goodall on 25 January 1871 in Saint Louis, Missouri. Their own son, Stanley was born 22 February 1872 but they also raised Matthew's son Percy as if the boys were brothers. Amelia died in 1901 and Benjamin died 1 January 1913.

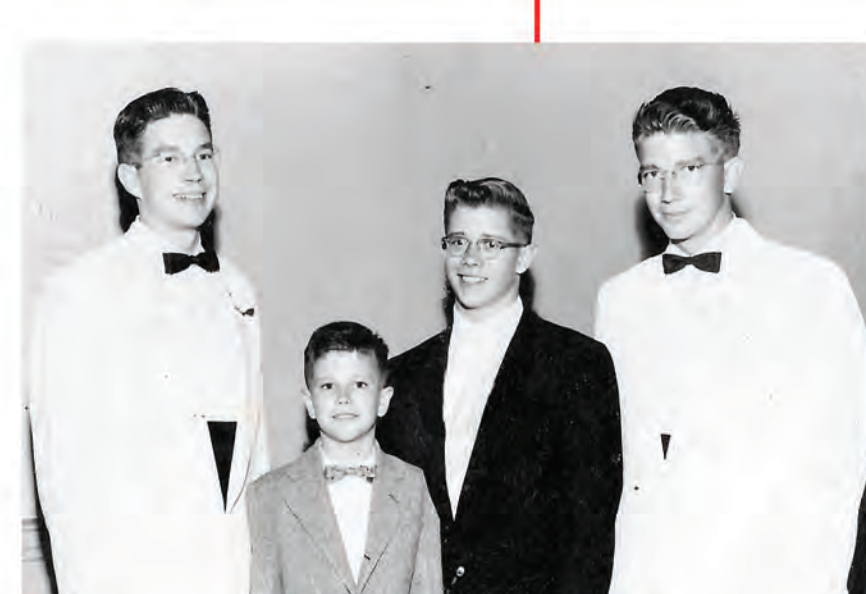

Percy Townsend Johnson was born 19 October 1870 in the state of Michigan. His mother, Jane Elizabeth Townsend Johnson, died shortly after he was born, so his father, Mathew Johnson, had Percy raised by his uncle, Benjamin Johnson and wife Amelia E. Goodall. Their son Stanley and Percy grew up like brothers in Bunker Hill, Macoupin, Illinois. At the age of ten, Percy attended a boarding school in Weatherford, Texas. Then, when Percy was 32 years old, he married Amelia, Sophia Stumm, known as Emily, at Saint John's Episcopal Church in Saint Louis, Missouri. They had two daughters: Alice Jane Johnson, born 31 March 1903 in Saint Louis, and Florence Elizabeth Johnson, born 18 February 1909 in Daly City, California. Emily died 30 January 1948 in San Diego, California at age 67 but Percy lived to be 93 years old and died in San Diego on 12 November 1963.

Gordon Raymond Scribner and Alice Jane Johnson gave birth to four sons: David Gordon Scribner, born in 1926; Kenneth Jerome Scribner, born in 1928; Douglas MacKenzie Scribner, born in 1938; and Stephen Peter Scribner, born in 1945.
